PARENTAL CONSENT FORM

If you are consenting to the treatment of a minor child, you will be required to provide a copy of the most recent Court Order Custody Agreement and/or Parenting Plan, if applicable, that gives you the authority to consent to the treatment of the child. By signing this form, you agree to keep me informed of any supplemental court orders or other proceedings that impact your parental rights, custody arrangements, or decision-making authority. Failure to produce the Court Order will prohibit me from seeing the minor child. If there is joint medical decision-making authority for your child, I will require both parents to consent to treatment and will not proceed until such consent is obtained.

As outlined in my Disclosure and Policy Statement, it is beyond the scope of my practice to provide custody recommendations, and any such request will be denied. The Court can appoint professionals who have the expertise to make such recommendations. By signing below, you agree not to subpoena my records or ask me to testify in court or to provide letters or documentation expressing my opinion about custody or visitation. Despite this, a Court may still require me to testify or to provide treatment information to an evaluator. I will comply with these requests as legally required and you will be required to compensate me for time spent providing these services as indicated in the Disclosure and Policy Statement.

In the course of treatment with your child, I may involve other family members in your child's treatment. However, please remember that my client is your child, not the other family members of the child. Any meetings with you or other family members will be documented in your child's record. These notes will be available to anyone who has legal access to your child's treatment record.

Therapy is most effective when there is a trusting relationship between the therapist and client. Privacy is important in establishing trust, and as a result, it is often important for child or adolescent clients to have a level of privacy around the therapy. It is my policy to provide parents with general information about their child's treatment, but not to share specific information disclosed during therapy. This includes behaviors that you may not approve of but which do not place your child at imminent risk or danger. If I ever feel that your child is in danger, I will communicate this information to you. By way of example, if your child tells me that s/he has tried alcohol a few times at parties, I will not generally share this with you. If your child shares that s/he has been drinking and driving or riding with a drunk driver, I would share this information with you. If you have questions about the types of information I will share, you can feel free to ask me hypothetical questions about situations that I would or would not disclose to you.

Although you may have the legal right to access any written record I keep, by signing this agreement you are agreeing that your child or adolescent should have privacy around their therapy and you agree not to request access to your child's full record.

I, _____, understand and agree to the policies outlined above and hereby give my consent for my child, _____, to see a therapist at Healing Through Play for counseling and assessment services.
